From the Attorney-General, Sir JOHN DUKE COLERIDGE,
Knight, Q.C., &c.,
M.P. FOR EXETER.

WESTMINSTER HALL,

1st September, 1873.

MY DEAR SIR,

I have very great pleasure in testifying to your perfect fitness for the post you are seeking from the Clothworkers' Company. I have known you in business many years, both on the Western Circuit and in London, and have no doubt whatever that you will discharge, with entire satisfaction to the Company, all the duties of the office if they should see fit to elect you.

Believe me to be,

Faithfully yours,

J. D. COLERIDGE.

H. W. NELSON, Esq.

From SIR JOHN BURGESS KARSLAKE, Kt., Q.C., &c.

HELMSDALE,

SUTHERLAND, N.B.,

31st August, 1873.

DEAR SIR,

I am ashamed to find that your letter, dated the 13th, which, after much wandering, reached me here is still unanswered. From my knowledge of your professional character and reputation I have no doubt that you would very effectually discharge the duties of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company.

I remain, dear Sir,

Yours truly,

JOHN B. KARSLAKE.

From W. B. GLASSE, Esqre., Q.C.

LINCOLN'S INN,

18th August, 1873.

DEAR SIR,

From what I have had the opportunity of seeing you in the conduct of business, I have no hesitation in expressing my opinion that you are thoroughly competent to discharge the duties of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company.

Believe me,

Truly yours,

W. B. GLASSE.

H. W. NELSON, Esq.

From CLEMENT MILWARD, Esqre., Q.C.

FAIRTHORN, BOLTON, HANTS,

21st August, 1873.

GENTLEMEN,

I take the liberty of saying that I have known Mr. NELSON in business for several years, and entertain a high opinion of his ability, and am confident that he would be found thoroughly efficient for the Office of Solicitor to your Worshipful Company.

I have the honour to be, Gentn.,

Your most humble Servt.,

CLEMENT MILWARD, Q.C.

To the WORSHIPFUL

THE CLOTHWORKERS' COMPANY.

From H. J. COLE, Esq., Q.C.
RECORDER OF PLYMOUTH AND DEVONPORT.

August 18th, 73.

MY DEAR SIR,

Having heard from you that you are a Candidate for the office of Solicitor to the Worshipful Company of Clothworkers, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to your high qualifications for that office. Your long connection with business in the City of London, your extensive knowledge of Mercantile Law and Conveyancing, together with your high personal character, must, I am sure, render you peculiarly fitted for the office you are seeking; and I feel sure that in you any public company will find a most valuable and reliable officer.

With every good wish for your success.

Believe me,

Yours very truly,

HENRY THOS. COLE.

M.P. FOR TAUNTON.

NEW COURT, TEMPLE,

August 12th, 1873.

MY DEAR SIR,

I have great pleasure in stating that for some years I have been constantly instructed by you in professional matters, and have had ample opportunity of judging of your ability and assiduity towards your clients.

I can with much confidence testify to your capability in every respect to discharge the duties of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company, and I trust you may be successful in obtaining that office.

I am, my dear Sir,

Yours very faithfully,

HENRY JAMES.

H. NELSON, Esqre.

From HENRY C. LOPES, Esq., Q.C.,
RECORDER OF EXETER, AND M.P. FOR LAUNCESTON.

March 1st 1873.

ROYAL HOTEL,

BRISTOL.

MY DEAR SIR,

I understand you are seeking the appointment of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company. I have had many opportunities of recognizing your great energy and the legal ability you have exhibited in cases which have come before our Courts of Law, and have no hesitation in saying that I think any public company will be fortunate if they secure the services of a professional man so well qualified as yourself to do their business.

It will give me great pleasure to hear of your obtaining this appointment.

Believe me, yours very truly,

HENRY C. LOPES.

H. W. NELSON, Esq.

From C. P. BUTT, Esq., Q.C.

12, Mount Street,

16th August, 1873.

MY DEAR SIR,

In consequence of my not having gone Circuit,
your letter did not reach me until this morning.

I wish you all success in your candidature for the office of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company. Having for some years had ample opportunity of forming an estimate of your business capacity, I have no hesitation in saying that I believe you to be in every respect qualified for the office you are seeking to obtain.

I am, dear Sir,

Yours very truly,

CHARLES P. BUTT.

H. W. NELSON, Esq.,

26, Martin's Lane.

From A. E. MILLER, Esqre Q.C.

I HAVE, for more than 16 years, had very frequent opportunities of judging of Mr. HERBERT WALTER NELSON, first as Managing Clerk to his brother, the then head of his present firm, and now the Solicitor to the Corporation of London, and afterwards as Solicitor on his own account, and I can confidently recommend him to any public body requiring the services of a skilful and energetic lawyer. As an old tenant of the Clothworkers' Company, on their Co. Derry Estates, I shall be very glad to learn that they have secured Mr. NELSON's services as their Solicitor, for though I have for some years ceased to hold their land I still retain a lively interest in their welfare and that of their town of Coleraine.

ALEX. EDW. MILLER.

LINCOLN'S INN,

TO THE MASTERS, WARDENS, AND ASSISTANTS
OF THE CLOTHWORKERS' COMPANY.

From WATKIN WILLIAMS, Esqre., Q.C.,
M.P. FOR DENBIGH.

LONDON,

August 14th, 1873.

DEAR SIR,

It gives me much pleasure to add my testimony to that of others of your fitness for the office of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company. My experience of your great energy and ability satisfies me that if the Company have the good fortune to select you, you will fill the office with advantage to them and credit to yourself.

Ever yours truly,

WATKIN WILLIAMS.

H. W. NELSON, Esq.

From THE HONOURABLE A. H. THESIGER, Q.C.

August 15th, 1873.

TO THE COURT OF ASSISTANTS OF THE CLOTHWORKERS' COMPANY.

GENLELEMEN,

Understanding that Mr. NELSON is a Candidate for the post of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company, I am happy to have the opportunity of testifying my belief in his fitness in every respect for the post which he seeks.

I have been often brought into contact with him in professional business, chiefly in cases where I have been engaged on the opposite side to that on which he has acted as Solicitor, and I have always observed in him the greatest energy and the most watchful attention to the interests of his clients.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

ALFRED H. THESIGER.

From WILLIAM ST. JAMES WHEELHOUSE, Esqre.,
Sergeants' Inn, Barrister-at-Law,
M P FOR LEEDS.

MY DEAR MR. NELSON,

You ask me for a Testimonial: all I can say is soon said. If either the Worshipful Company of Cloth-workers, or indeed any such body, be desirous of obtaining at once the most efficient and the most conscientious performance of duty, it would, in my humble opinion, be utterly impossible to expect or to receive it from any human being if not from you.

I state this from as close and intimate a Parliamentary knowledge of you as any man can reasonably have, or hope to have of another; and no one knows better than I do how arduously and how effectively you can and do attend to the interests of your clientage, in every sense of the word, at all times.

Your note was addressed to me in Serjeants' Inn, and, having followed me to Leeds, accounts for the day's delay.

Wishing you every success, believe me to be,

Yours sincerely,

W. ST. J. WHEELHOUSE.

From EUGENE C. CLARKSON Esqre Barrister-at-Law

3, Paper Buildings, TEMPLE,

18th August, 1873.

TO THE WORSHIPFUL THE CLOTHWORKERS' COMPANY.

GENTLEMEN,

Having been given to understand that the post of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company is vacant, and that Mr. HERBERT WALTER NELSON is a Candidate for the appointment, I have much pleasure in stating that I have known him for many years past as a very able, experienced and energetic Solicitor, and that I believe that the interests of your Company would always receive at his hands the greatest care and attention in the event of his obtaining the appointment of Solicitor to the Company.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedt. Servant,

EUGENE C. CLARKSON.

From F. A. PHILBRICK, Esq., Barrister-at-Law,

RECORDER OF COLCHESTER.

LAMB BUILDINGS, TEMPLE,

12th August, 1873.

H. W. NELSON, Esq.,

DEAR SIR,

I am extremely glad to learn that you are a Candidate for the Solicitorship to the Clothworkers' Company.

From some years' experience of your qualifications, both personally as a gentleman, and professionally as a lawyer, I am sure no better Candidate could seek election, and, by a somewhat singular incident, I feel I can speak with an exceptional knowledge.

In the earlier years of my introduction to the law, I was an articled clerk some time in the office of Mr. W. RIXON, the Solicitor to the Company, and while there saw and took part in much of its business.

A practical acquaintance, therefore, with what its requirements are, enables me to speak with confidence that you would, if elected, thoroughly and efficiently discharge the duties of the office; and I write thus, not from mere friendship, or with a view to oblige, but from a conviction of your fitness for the post, based on actual experience, and that the interests of the Company would be greatly served if they were so fortunate as to secure your services.

I trust I may hear your application has been attended with success.

I am, dear Sir,

Yours very faithfully,

FRED. A. PHILBRICK.

C. J. COTTINGHAM, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

LONDON,

August 19th, 1873.

DEAR SIR,

I am informed you are a Candidate for the vacant post of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company. An acquaintance with you of some years enables me to bear my testimony (which I do very willingly) to your fitness by ability, legal attainments, and professional standing for this or any similar appointment, and should you obtain it, I cannot doubt that you will discharge the duties attached to it with credit to yourself and satisfaction to the Company.

You have my best wishes for your success.

I am, dear Sir,

Very truly yours,

MY DEAR SIR,

In reply to your letter informing me that you are a Candidate for the post of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company, I sincerely trust you may be elected, and am confident that should you be so, the Company, in obtaining the services of a gentleman of your legal knowledge and practical experience, will have secured a most valuable officer.

Yours very truly,

FITZ OWEN J. SKINNER.

From I. P. INGHAM, Esqre.. Barrister-at-Law.

DEAR SIR,

Being a Candidate for the vacant post of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company, you ask me for a testimonial. If it can in any way aid your chance of success, I have great pleasure in saying that what I have seen of your work, whether in Court or out, has always been done with great ability and unvarying courtesy.

I remain, dear Sir,

Yours truly,

12th August, 1873.

DEAR MR. NELSON,

I am pleased to learn that you think of standing for the Solicitorship of the Clothworkers' Company, and I am most happy to be able to testify from our professional acquaintance and friendship (now extending, I am glad to remember, over some years) that no one is more thoroughly competent than yourself to discharge all the duties of the office. I sincerely hope you may be successful, as I am sure the Company will secure in you a most efficient servant. I do not know whether this letter will be of any use to you, but you are most welcome to use it.

Believe me,

Yours very truly,

R. E. WEBSTER.

3, NEW SQUARE, LINCOLN'S INN,

18th August, 1873.

DEAR SIR,

I understand that you are a Candidate for the vacant office of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company.

In most heartily wishing you success in your candidature, I have great pleasure in expressing my opinion that, should you be appointed to the post, your extensive and varied practice will enable you to bring to the service of the Company a professional experience which will be of the greatest value.

From my personal experience I can testify to the careful and thorough manner in which the work of your firm is done, so far as the result of that work can be traced in the papers sent to Counsel. The clear and detailed accuracy of your instructions has made it a pleasure to deal with such papers as you have laid before me.

Believe me, dear Sir,

Very faithfully yours,

From W. H. BUTTERWORTH Esq., Special Pleader.

Templi,

August 15th, 1873.

MY DEAR SIR,

I understand that you are a Candidate for the vacant office of Sherriff to the Clothworkers' Company. I know how little need you have of testimonials; but, I should, after having known you for upward of 20 years, feel aggrieved if I were not allowed on this occasion to say that during the whole of that period I have known you professionally and otherwise, and can, with truth, declare that you are beyond question fully competent to fill the office now vacant with credit to yourself and advantage to the Company. Your success in your profession, already accomplished, will confirm my statements, if any confirmation were required.

Sincerely yours,

W. H. BUTTERWORTH,

Special Pleader.

From the GREAT EASTERN RAILWAY COMPANY.

LONDON,

22nd of August, 1874.

MY DEAR SIR,

With reference to your application for the Solicitorship of the Clothworkers' Company, I have much pleasure in saying that I hope you will be successful, as I am satisfied from the experience I gained of your professional abilities during the period you were engaged for the Company, in the matter of the Bankruptcy of their Agent in the north, that should this be so, the post would be filled by a thoroughly competent, energetic, and discreet officer, and one from whom the Company would derive the greatest service.

August 25th, 1873.

MY DEAR SIR,

I have very great pleasure in expressing my very favourable opinion of your skill and gentlemanly management of the several difficult and delicate legal matters relating to my executorship, and, indeed, of all your other professional labours, of which I have now for so many years been a witness. I feel very sure that few solicitors can be found possessing the peculiar qualifications required for a great City Corporation in larger measure than yourself, and I heartily hope you may succeed in obtaining the appointment.

Yours very sincerely,

MY DEAR SIR,

I am informed you are a Candidate for the post of Solicitor to the Clothworkers' Company. Now, I do not know that anything I can say will assist you in attaining your object; but if, as a landowner of the county of Norfolk, my stating that your able management of the Woodhall Estate, under very difficult circumstances, for several years past will assist you, I have much pleasure in communicating it.

Your activity and legal acumen ought, I am sure, to render you a most valuable Agent in anything you undertake.

Wishing you success,
